Corine has been the scorer this past season in both juniors and seniors, as well as being the Gold Coast regional scorer. She is very accurate. She is very personable and is sought out at our club by scorers in other grades for guidance. I know she has a softball background but has an excellent knowledge of baseball and scoring systems

Firstly, Corine is a mother to twin boys coming through the ranks. She is first to offer to help our scoring ranks both at club level but also the regional side. I have observed her offering assistance to other scorers. Her knowledge of the rules is very strong as is her ability use all types of scoring systems.
